Office of Legislative Counsel

Friday -- 1 October 1954

1. Cong. Hillings was debriefed concerning his recent trip to Latin America. Those present at the debriefing were Col. J. C. King and Messrs. [redacted]

[redacted] from WH Division, OCI, and [redacted] of OSI (the latter having interest in one point concerning Uranium which Cong. Hillings discussed). The Congressman expressed his thanks for the assistance rendered by CIA personnel [redacted]

[redacted] which he considered extremely valuable. He was high in his praise for the work of [redacted] and for the work of [redacted]

[redacted] He was particularly impressed with the ability of the latter. Prior to the Congressman's debriefing he talked for a few minutes with the DCI and thanked him for the assistance the Agency rendered and for the cooperation of the Legislative Counsel.
